Absolute Acquiescence

I am yours and you are mine.
You live within me depositing unearned treasures.
My heart dances for you as I celebrate your goodness:
When I feel fenced in by fate,
You show me positive possibilities, enlightening
My eyes.
When I bemoan my solitary life, you reveal the bliss of
Solitude to me.
When I cannot see the invisible lines that separate right
From wrong, you give me instruction and guidance,
Ornaments around my neck.
When I become comfortable in my transgressions,
You discipline me developing perseverance.
When I am buried under the weight of guilt,
You restore my soul.
Your eyes are always upon me and your ears attentive
To my cries.
You are my glory, a mender of broken hearts, bringing
Joy after weeping, hope for tomorrow, and comfort
For today.
You are my anchor, the stronghold of my life, my light
And my salvation.
My eyes adore you, one who has remained the same,
Throughout the ages.
You are my bridegroom, holding me tenderly in your
Arms shielding and protecting me from all harm.
I kneel before you and lay my imperfections at your feet
Confident you will not count them against me.
You are gentle and humble in heart.
You are merciful-
You are holy-
You are my unfailing love-
You are my everything.
